BRIEF REPORT OUTLINING HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GAME AND OTHER NEWSWORTHY COMMENTS:

Carlisle took to the road this week visiting North League rivals Morpeth With a somewhat depleted side missing some sixteen squad members Expectations may have ben a little low, but a big plus was the return of Inspirationl Captain Mat Davies, alas a bonus short lived as Mat took A blow to the head after 20 minutes & had to leave play (the walk to the side line resembling a Strictly Come Dancing competitor & his speech was a little bit like Johnathan Woss but lets not go there ?)

Into the fray came our one & only replacement Eddie Faulder (at that point the driver pulled a hammy just in case he was called upon)

A quick spin of the bottle & David Milbourn & Max Connon combine as Captain`s with several cry`s of i`m Spartacus which i dealt with very Diplomatically, "" off & all that ""

For Carlisle it was a game we came away from feeling desperately Unlucky having had 70% possession & territory, which was mush echoed

By the home Coaches & supporters.

The 3-0 score lending no justification to Carlisle's efforts, more saddening as
The the had in the ruck was a red & white one.

The Colts should take great heart form this game as Morpeth had to repel
Our attack over & over again, tackling in two's & three's to prevent a score.

Morpeth gained great relief at the final whistle as Carlisle had camped within
Their 5 metre line for the last 15 minutes o play.

To a man Carlisle gave their all, & for marks out of ten then I could go no
Lower then 9's, but that would be difficult.

To the lad's just keep doing what your doing & the result's will come.
